

Good Woman

Words and Music: Joe Hand ©2008 McHand Publishing, BMI 352-552-8056

It's breakfast time again Three more product from the hen
Black gold to wash it all down scramble to get ready
Drive my dodge like Richard Petty hope I beat the traffic into town

Morons on the morning show who pays their check? I don't know
I can't believe they said that on the air
My job isn't that much fun 60 hours on the run
I'm living proof that life just isn't fair.

But there's a good woman waiting home to be good to me
There's a good woman waiting home to be very good to me
I'm certainly no prize, but my baby wants me by her side
There's a good woman waiting home to be very good to me

Tax time is here again My accountant Steve pretends
That everything is going to be just fine
Same thing happens every year IRS inspired fear
Asking me to give what isn't mine

I'll just work and work some more
Keep the wolves just past the door
That feed the fed and wars overseas
You'd think I could get ahead, might be by the time I'm dead
And then they will be sorry, wait and see

CHORUS

One day I'll make it up to her I promise to
But that day shouldn't come too soon
Cause how I'd ever pay for it's beyond me...
Lucky for me... there's a good woman...
